THE CADET'S FAIR -Armorg Hall presents a beau iful appearance on enteriog. To the right is a long supper table, so elegantly spread by Mrs. Frances Hulty and Mrs. A. A. Warfield that it makes a man hungry to look at it. A young gentleman from Illinois, who took supper there night before last, said to a friend. he would like to board at a hotel where the e fire and oysters were as good, and the wish was re-chood by all who participated. In tront of the stage is a beautifully ornamented table, surmounted by lightly tapering spires reaching to the ceiling, the design of Mr. S. B. Stoutenourg. Here are cakes, fruits, creams, &c., n abundance, with elegant fancy articles, offered by Mrs. John S. Greens and Miss Walob, assisted by a number of other ladies. (); the left is another elegant table, presided over by Mrs. R. M. Latham and Miss Hill, with many assistants. Here are offered a silver tea set, with other articles of plate, a gold watch. a beautiful pair of panel paintings sent from Elmira, N. Y., several elegant pic-oushions, and many other articles worth notice. Next comes a turn-table, and next "The Country flanked by tables displaying many costly articles, among them a large velvet-bound photograph album seat from Chicigo. The store appounces on its sign that "Groceries and Provisions' are for sale, and the usual variety, embracing hams, or pig, coffee, butter, a bex of sigars sent by Steiner & Yohe, and a pair of shoes with thick wooden soles, made in war times, and sent from Richmond. A large pair weighed at a cast of 5 cents, and a prize is to he gained by the best guessir as to quantity of beans contained in a scaled jer. Misses Morrow and Emma D. Garwood preside over the store, which has been furnished by the efforts

A Mystery.-Persons whose business of in clinations have for several months called them to the southern part of a street named after an illustrious Virginia warrior have noticed often an almost inanimate specimen of the zoological creation, of a pepper and salt color, known anciently as the hippos, which nearly the whols day long stands as unflipobing as a statue at or near the intersection of two streets. From a distance one would suppose a statue of Pegasus had been set up in Alexandria, or the Bobii x had been transported from the banks of the Nile to the Potomse. On close in pecion. however, a hugt-boned animal of the getus named above is discovered, but from its mutionless attitude would readily pass for the defunce remains of one who had acted well its part and in death had avided the modern fate of becoming the basis of an excitant to mother earth to yield her increase. Weather seems of no consequence to the creture, the keen blasts of winter or the aqueous satern vapora all proving ineffectual in m .vtog him from his position. It has been suggested that, like the steel of the famous East ledian juggler, it has the remarkable proper sity of rising in the air on a peg being turned. On close inspection probably a magic screw could be detected behind one of its ears, and may be it is only waiting for some curious minded individual to mount him and turn the per when the rider will be treated to as good a trip among the clouds as the Persian Princess is said to have received from a similar creature.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT ON A RAILROAD TRAIN. -There is general complaint of the frequent cutturets of disorderly conduct and prolani y on the late night train from Washing on to this city. Drucken obsracters get on the train at Washington and keep up a general tow all the way to Alexandria. On Saturday night last one of these diggree ful rows occured on the train, much to the disgust and anpoyatce of all the respectable passengers. Upon reaching here the row was continued on the platferm at the depot. Of course, no one can prevent low characters from making an exhib tion of their vulgarity, but the officers of the train can take their names and hand them over to the police authorities. The traveling public demand, at least, this effort on the part of the railroad officials, to preserve order on the train al uded to.

THE ALEXANDRIA DISTRICT,-The Richmond State says: "It is said that the work of redistricting the State has nearly been completed. The Commonwealth tas been so cut up as to throw a heavy negro mejority in such districts as have heretefore been strongly democratic. The Rechmond district will, it is said, run down nearly to Newport Naws. The Alexandria district is so strongly democratic that it has been impossible to readjust it so as to get a readjuster Cor greesman, and therefore it will b) made more errougly democratic than ever; that is, the democratic portions of the surrounding counties will be throw into the district in order to leave the readjusters less to contend

THE W. & O. R. R.-Mr. E. K. Hayt, re-presenting the Baltimore, Cicolonati and Weswieds most y westerly, stationery or higher tero Railroad Company, for whom Mr. Cazenove G. Lee, purchased the Washington and Unio Railroad, yesterday, was in the city late in the afternoon. He said the purchasers intended not only to push the Washington and Onio railroad through to Winchester, but that the B. C. & W. road to Cincinnati would be completed as soon as possible. What off or the change of owners of the W. & O. R. R. will have upon Alexandria is not known, but it is thought that the city will be benefitted.

RUN AWAY .- A horse attached to a sleigh belonging to Mr. Julian T. Burke, ran away this evening, and throwing Mr. Barke out, dashed furiously down Prince street, till at the intersection of Fairfux where Mr. Green's horse and wagon were standing in front of the furniture warerooms. Here the runaway horse made a leap over Mr. Green's horse and falling construction of the Southere. Atlantic and on one side left the sleigh on the other, up-Onio Railroad, which stores from the lice of the setting Mr. Green's wagon, but on'y breeking Norfolk and Western road, and runs in a the shafts. The runaway horse was but slightly injured.
